

What is the Extent of Life?

WHAT IS THE EXTENT OF MANKIND'S PHYSICAL AGE?

According to James Ussher (In 2013) the world only has to wait 983 years for 7000 years to be fulfilled which many think will be the end of this age when Yeshua is to return to destroy the wicked, and receive His elect. If that is close to the truth mankind only has ten generations yet to fulfill the rest of the book of Revelation. I say "the rest" because we are already in the beginning of the third seal with four more yet to be fulfilled. Not only that, but, none of us living today will be alive when Yeshua returns.

There is more! If we don't qualify to be in the first resurrection we will stay dead for at least a thousand more years after Yeshua returns. Yes, we will be resurrected, at some point, after that, in our course, to live another life time, during our time of judgment. God will determine what our choices are, if we choose life or choose death. When those who then die a physical death, have rejected God's way of happy life, their bones will be burned in a lake of fire, never to live again. That is how the wicked are burned up. God will not send sinners to an ever burning place of continual torture, people have labeled "hell". God is love; He could not do that! But, we, who have been called and hopefully chosen, are being judged now, and if we pass the test we can begin a life of eternity with Yeshua before the thousand years begins. Read about it in Rev.20. We will help Yeshua clean up the mess that is left at the end of this age, and start a new thousand year civilization with no Satan around to interfere. Doesn't that sound wonderful, almost like a fairy tale, except it is God's true word! It also is the time during which the fulfillment of the Gentiles will take place. (Another study)

----- end of my comments -----

Creation occurred 6,010 years ago yesterday, according to the book Posted: October 24, 2006 How old is the world? Most people would say: "Nobody knows." But the author of the book frequently described as the greatest history book ever written, said the world was created Oct. 23, 4004 making it 6,010 yesterday (2006). In the 1650s, an Anglican bishop named James Ussher published his "Annals of the World," subtitled, "The Origin of Time, and Continued to the Beginning of the Emperor Vespasian's Reign and the Total Destruction and Abolition of the Temple and Commonwealth of the Jews." First published in Latin, it consisted of more than 1,600 pages.

The book, now published in English for the first time, is a favorite of homeschoolers and those who take ancient history seriously. It's the history of the world from the Garden of Eden to the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70.

Of course, there will be those who disagree with Ussher's calculations of time — especially evolutionists who need billions of years to explain their theory of how life sprang from non-life and mutated from one-celled animals into human beings. Yeshua said No one knows the exact time when Yeshua would return, so we know we won't know for sure until it happens.

Ussher's arrival at the date of Oct. 23 was determined based on the fact that most peoples of antiquity, especially the Jews, started their calendar at harvest time. Ussher concluded there must be good reason for this, so he chose the first Sunday following autumnal equinox.

Although the autumnal equinox is Sept. 21 today, that is only because of historical calendar-juggling to make the years come out right.

If you think this is a startling fact – an actual date for Creation – you haven't seen anything until you've pored through the rest of Ussher's "Annals of the World." It's a classic history book for those who believe in the Bible – and a compelling challenge for those who don't.

The new edition of "Annals" is one of the most significant publishing events of the 21st century.

In this masterful and legendary volume, commissioned by Master Books to be updated from the 17th-century original Latin manuscript to modern English and made available to the general public, is the fascinating history of the ancient world from the Genesis creation through the destruction of the Jerusalem Temple.

Find out:

- * Why was Julius Caesar kidnapped in 75 B.C.?
- * Why did Alexander the Great burn his ships in 326 B.C.?
- * What really happened when the sun "went backward" as a sign to Hezekiah?
- * What does secular history say about the darkness at the Crucifixion?

Ussher traveled throughout Europe, gathering much information from the actual historical documents. Many of these documents are no longer available, having been destroyed since the time of his research.

Integrating biblical history (around 15 percent of the text is from the Bible) with secular sources, Ussher wrote this masterpiece. Considered not only a literary classic, but also an accurate reference, "The Annals of the World" was so highly regarded for its preciseness that the timeline from it was included in the margins of many King James Version Bibles throughout the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries.

"The Annals of the World" is a necessary addition to any church library, pastor's library, or any library – public or personal. The entire text has been updated from 17th-century English to present-day vernacular in a five-year project commissioned by Master Books. Containing many human-interest stories from the original historical documents collected by Ussher, this is more than just a history book – it's a work of history.

Special features:

- * Important literary work that has been inaccessible in book form for over 300 years
- * Includes CD of Ussher's Chronology of the World – full of colored charts, graphs, timelines, and much, much more
